

The PTO sponsors a Christmas Bazaar each year. This is one of the big money-raising projects of the year, and requires much time and effort from many people. This year in addition to the sale of the traditional gift items, a dessert supper was served. There was a bicycle raffle, a cake walk, and fun and games for the younger set.

