

If there is anything that is more fun than going to a Junior-Senior Dance, it's planning and decorating for it! The juniors in the spring of '76 recreated the town of Walterboro with murals of Main Street and Jefferies. Hours were spent "punching" the green sprigs in the hedges, spangling the sky with stars, and building a fountain and pond complete with live goldfish!

