

What would it be like without cheerleaders? Cheerleaders arouse school spirit and lead our pep rallies. They are there to cry when a game is lost in the final seconds by a field goal or a last minute basket. Cheerleaders also rejoice with the players and fans when a game is victorious. Cheerleaders bring the players and fans closer together so that they can cheer their team onto victory.