

Senior Superlatives

MR. AND MS. WARHAWK

Shan Pye and Marsha McGinnis were selected for this most prestigious senior superlative. Each year the faculty considers the Senior Class as a whole and looks for the two students who are an example of all the superlatives combined. They search for the boy and girl who show the most responsibility, involvement, determination, and promise along with academic success. Throughout their years in school, Shan and Marsha fulfilled these qualities. Shan participated in sports such as football, basketball, and baseball. He also served as a member of the Broadcast Club and of the J.E.T.S. Club. Marsha was the captain of the Varsity cheerleaders, the editor of the Talon, and a member of the Warhawk staff, N.H.S., J.E.T.S. Club, and powderpuff football team. Both Shan and Marsha were listed in Who's Who Among American High School Students. After graduation, Shan plans to attend Presbyterian College, and Marsha plans to go to Converse College.

MOST ATHLETIC

Robbie Free and Jan Ulmer were chosen for this superlative on the basis of their willingness to participate and ability to excel in the athletics of the school. Jan was involved in basketball, softball, and powderpuff football and hopes to pursue sports in college. Robbie took part in athletics for several years. He played basketball, football, and baseball. Both of these Warhawks were fine examples of true sportsmanship.

WITTIEST

David Ritter and Wanda Priester were chosen by the Seniors as the funniest in the class. Each was able to bring a smile to anyone's face with a joke, a laugh, or simply a different style of clothes. Each had a unique sense of humor that was a bright spot in the class.

MISS DAR

Sallie Neal was awarded this honor by the Daughters of the American Revolution. She was chosen on the basis of her character and citizenship.

Mr. And Ms. Warhawk

Most Athletic

Miss DAR

Wittiest