

Talent Reflects Success

From the time when the spectators and fans proclaimed the Hawks to be one of the best teams seen in a while, much speculation was focused on the Lady Hawks. The senior-dominated team sailed into Christmas with a five-win record having suffered only two defeats. The highlight of the season came also during the Christmas season with the Hawks capturing first place in the First Annual J.C.C.A. Tip-off Tournament. Along with that thrill, a few of the girls were named to the all-tournament team, while Jan Ulmer was given the honor of Most Valuable Player of the tournament. After the first of the new year, the Hawks' starting line-up soon struck fear into the hearts of players everywhere. Although the team is losing four starters due to graduation, several underclassman can fill the leading roles in the future. With such talent prevailing in the hallowed halls of John C., it is no surprise that there was much success in the 1984-85 season.

Before the game, coaches Carol Meegan and Rhonda Rister (far left), a basketball alumnus of John C., discuss the upcoming event as they wait for the warm-up period to end.

As senior Jan Ulmer shoots a smoothly executed lay-up, she adds two more points to her high school record of more than a thousand points.

After the shot, Susan Thomas (51) and Debbie Powers, both being starters, wait for either the rebound or the two additional points.
