

Thomas Marion Rowe, Jr.

Usually found clowning around, these seniors find new friends as well as mischief in the wonders of the gift shop.

As the Class of '87 "reflects" upon their trip to Charlestowne Landing, all agree that they have the best souvenir it has to offer — memories to last a lifetime.

Traci Warren looks forward to a beautiful day of fun in the sun as she emerges from below deck.

