

Diamonds Are Forever

Sophomore Wendy Litchfield comes to a halting stop as she reaches third base safely.

Wendy "Bones" Ulmer displays the latest fashions in shorts while awaiting her turn at bat.

Tara Ulmer backs up Wendy Litchfield and Renee Dennis as the ball slips through the gap.

Diamonds were truly forever in the eyes of the 1986 softball team. The team advanced to the state play-offs for the second straight year, only to be defeated in the first round by Calhoun Academy of St. Matthews.

Practicing every day after school definitely paid off as the girls compiled a 9-6 record and a second straight conference championship.

Connie Craven and Wendy Litchfield shared the most valuable player title.

First baseman Debbie Powers, a junior, bends low for a long throw from the short stop.

