

Slugging It Out

Sophomore Scott Pellum fires from his second base position in hopes of retiring the runner.

Senior Danny Beach catches up with the line drive before it reaches the fence.

Ward Ulmer, a senior who is now playing at the Baptist College, is too late to tag the Cardinal Newman runner out.

The Varsity baseball team of 1986 had an outstanding year. Under the coaching of Mr. Jim Winslett and Tony Orsini, the Hawks earned yet another state play-off bid.

With a large number of seniors, they benefitted from experience. Their leadership helped the team through troubled times as well as celebrating the victory.

Having been to the state play-offs several times in the past few years, the team will be ready to go again this year.
