

TALENT LEADS TO SUCCESS

Practice does pay off. Look at this year's J.V. football team. Practicing every day, attending summer camp, and giving up spare time led to many exciting games.

Led by first year coach, Brett Maddox, the young Hawks gained the experience needed to play on the Varsity level. Quarterback Cam Wertz and running back Matt Free added spark to the Hawks' offense by either setting up or scoring many touchdowns.

The 1986 team consisted of Cam Wertz, Asher Howell, Jamie Bryan, Whit Carter, Scott Meegan, Matt Free, Bubba Jones, Stacey Padgett, Eric Bennett, Kevin Litchfield, Michael Smithe, Clark Hiott, Kenneth Greenwell, Grayson Altman, Eric Warren, Todd Meegan, Wesley Jones, Tim Godwin, Pat Padgett, and Lance Dennis.

The Hawks enter the field ready to play Thomas Heyward.

Not only do they play, but several players lead cheers at a pep rally.

Although small, Wesley Jones gives football his all.

The Thomas Heyward defense successfully stops the Hawks' play.

