Arvind Mahankali was named the 2013 Scripps National Spelling Bee Winner after correctly spelling "knaidel". Arvind, a 13-year-old from Queens, NY, was one of 11 spellers in the finals. This was Arvind's 4th year to appear in the finals.

President Barack Obama and former Presidents Jimmy Carter, George H.W. Bush, Bill Clinton and George W. Bush were present for the dedication of the George W. Bush Presidential Center in April. The Center contains 80 terabytes of digital information, more than 200 million e-mails and more than 43,000 artifacts from the Bush Administration.

On April 8th, Margaret Thatcher passed away. She served as the British Prime Minister from 1979-1990, making her the longest-serving 20th century Prime Minister, and the first female to hold the office.

A meteor flared through the skies over Russia's Chelyabinsk region on February 15th, triggering an atomic bomb-sized shock wave. NASA said it was the largest reported fireball since the Tunguska event in 1908 – an asteroid explosion that flattened millions of trees over 820 square miles of remote Siberian forest.

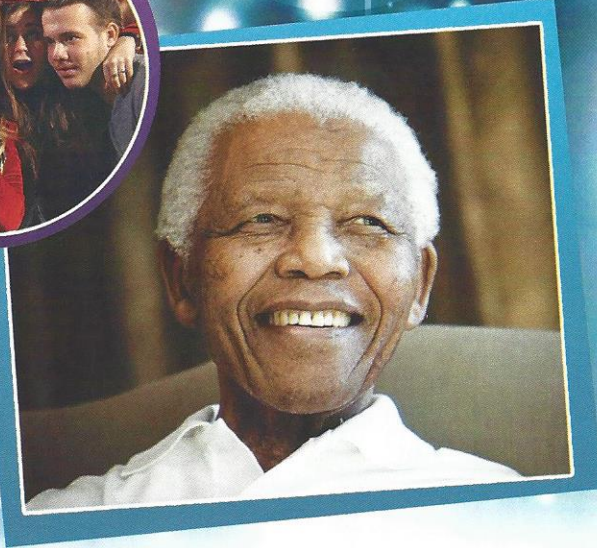

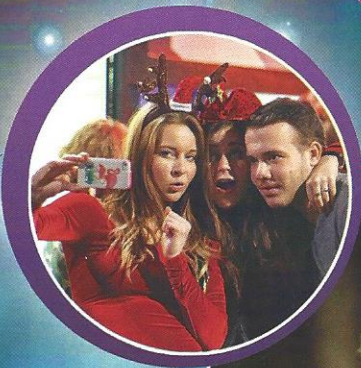

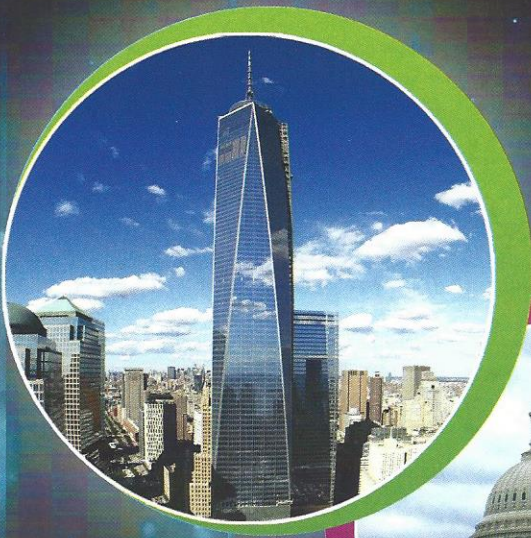

On February 11th, Pope Benedict XVI announced his resignation effective February 28th. He stated his unexpected resignation was due to declining health. His voluntary resignation was the first since 1294. 115 participating cardinal-electors elected Cardinal Jorge Mario Bergoglio as the new Pope on March 13th. The 266th Pope of the Catholic Church took the papal name Francis. In December, Pope Francis was named as Time Magazine's Person of the Year.

President Barack Obama's second-term Inauguration took place twice this year. He officially took the oath of office on Sunday, January 20th in a private ceremony. A public Inauguration ceremony was held on Monday, January 21st. The 20th Amendment states that the President must take office by noon on January 20th.

Happy 55th Birthday Lego! 55 years ago a Danish toy-maker submitted a patent for our favorite bricks. Lego, which means to "play well," has provided hours of enjoyment to kids of all ages.

Prince William and Princess Kate, the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge, welcomed Prince George Alexander Louis on July 22nd, weighing in at 8 lbs. 6 oz. Prince George of Cambridge is the third in line to succeed his great-grandmother, after his grandfather and father. Prince George is the first grandchild of the Prince of Wales.

The final component of One World Trade Center's spire was put into place on May 10th, making the building a symbolic height of 1,776 feet and the tallest in the Western Hemisphere. One World Trade Center, also referred to as 1WTC or Freedom Tower, stands on the site of the original 6 World Trade Center. The new complex is home to the National September 11 Memorial and Museum.

800,000 federal employees were furloughed and 1.3 million more were required to work without knowing when their next paycheck would come, after the government shut down on October 1st. The shut-down was the first since 1995-96, and resulted when Congress could not pass the budget for 2014. The shut-down ended on October 17th, after Congress agreed to suspend the debt limit until February 7, 2014.

November 22, 2013 marked the 50th anniversary of the assassination of the 35th President, John Fitzgerald Kennedy. The nation paid tribute to President Kennedy with ceremonies across the country. Kennedy's most famous quotation came from his 1961 Inaugural Address, "And so, my fellow Americans: ask not what your country can do for you - ask what you can do for your country."

The USS George Washington aircraft carrier helped distribute supplies to the Philippines after that nation was hit by Typhoon Haiyan on November 8th. The typhoon was the deadliest natural disaster on record in the Philippines, according to the National Disaster Risk Reduction and Management Council.

Enrollment opened on October 1st for the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act that was signed into law in 2010. The controversial law faced additional scrutiny as the healthcare.gov website caused frustration for users as they tried to enroll.

The National Toy Hall of Fame introduced their 2013 inductees - Chess and the Rubber Duck. The toys join other iconic toys such as Barbie, Hot Wheels and Lincoln Logs, bringing the total to 54 toys in the Hall of Fame.

The Baltimore Ravens defeated the San Francisco 49ers 34-31 to win Super Bowl XLVII, the first Super Bowl loss in 49ers' franchise history. The game was nicknamed the HarBowl, featuring brothers Jim and John Harbaugh as opposing head coaches for the first time in Super Bowl history. Ravens quarterback Joe Flacco was named the 2013 Super Bowl MVP.

Jimmie Johnson was victorious in his 400th career start, winning the 55th running of the Daytona 500. The win was Johnson's second Daytona 500 win. The pole position was won by Danica Patrick, making her the first woman to hold this spot in NASCAR history, and her eighth-place finish was the best ever for a woman in the Daytona 500 race. Dale Earnhardt, Jr. and Mark Martin finished in second and third place respectively.

Notre Dame 42-14 to win the 2013 Discover BCS National Championship Game. The win was Alabama's third college football championship in four years.

Finishing the race in 2:02.89 and winning by 2 1/2 lengths, Orb won the 139th running of the Kentucky Derby on May 4th. The 3-year-old colt, who was favored to win the race, won a purse of $1.4 million. It was announced in November that Orb has been retired to begin his stud career.

The Miami Heat won their second consecutive NBA Championship after defeating the San Antonio Spurs on June 20th. The Championship was determined in 7 games and featured four former NBA Final MVPs: Tim Duncan, Tony Parker, Dwyane Wade and LeBron James.

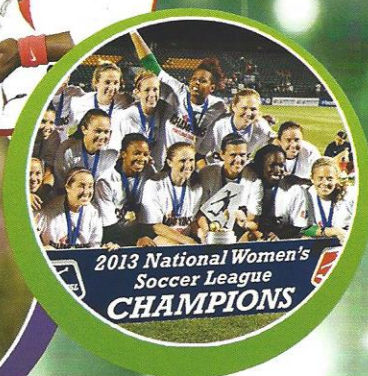

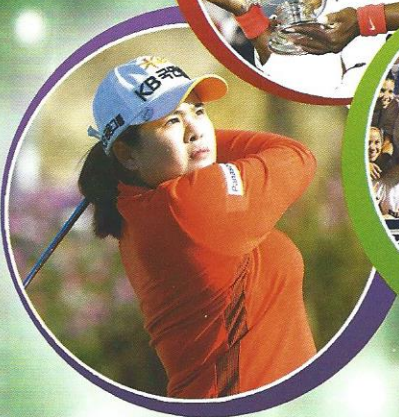

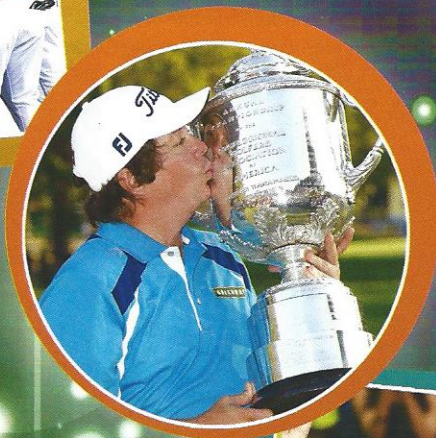

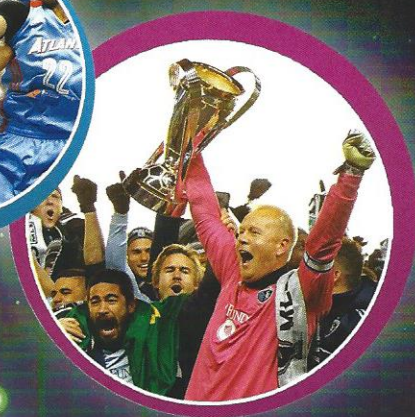

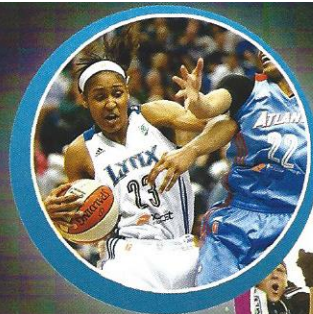

Championship game paired #1 seed Louisville Cardinals against #4 seed Michigan Wolverines. Louisville went on to win their first NCAA Championship since 1986, by a score of 82-76. The win put Head Coach Rick Pitino in the history books by becoming the first coach in NCAA history to win national championships at two different schools. Luke Hancock was named Most Outstanding Player.

The 2012-13 NHL season was reduced from an 82-game season to a 48-game season after the start was delayed due to a lockout by the owners. The Chicago Blackhawks defeated the Boston Bruins to win the 2013 Stanley Cup Championship.

After 11 attempts, Tony Kanaan got his first Indianapolis 500 win. In the 97th running, Helio Castroneves and Dario Franchitti failed in their attempts to tie A.J. Foyt, Al Unser, Sr. and Rick Mears for the most Indy wins.

No. 2 ranked Alabama defeated No. 1

The 75th NCAA Men's Division I Basketball

● The Boston Red Sox competed against the St. Louis Cardinals in the 2013 World Series, defeating the Cardinals 4 games to 2. This was the first World Series won by the Red Sox at Fenway Park since 1918. David Ortiz was named World Series MVP.

● The Minnesota Lynx won their second WNBA title in three years, beating the Atlanta Dream 86-77 in a 3-game sweep. Maya Moore was named as the MVP.

● Sporting Kansas City became the third team to win the MLS Cup in their home stadium, after defeating Real Salt Lake in 10 rounds of penalty kicks. The 2013 final set MLS records for the longest shoot-out and coldest game-time temperature. Days later, Sporting KC's goalie, Jimmy Nielsen, announced his retirement after a 19-year soccer career. During the team's 2013 MLS Cup championship season, Nielsen led all goalkeepers with 19 victories and 14 shutouts in MLS competition and was named a finalist for MLS Goalkeeper of the Year for the second consecutive season.

● Jason Dufner won his first PGA Championship and first major tournament by finishing two strokes ahead of Jim Furyk at Oak Hill Country Club in Pittsford, NY.

● #1 seed Connecticut defeated #5 seed Louisville 93-60 for the 2013 Women's NCAA Basketball Championship. This was the 6th consecutive year that UConn made it to the Final Four.

● The 2013 US Open was held at the USTA Billie Jean King National Tennis Center in New York. Defending women's singles champion

Serena Williams successfully retained her title after defeating Victoria Azarenka. Rafael Nadal achieved his 2nd US Open win in the men's singles championship.

● 2013 was the inaugural season for the National Women's Soccer League. The League consists of 8 teams, with 4 of those coming from the former Women's Professional Soccer league (WPS). The Portland Thorns became the NWSL Champions after defeating Western New York Flash 2-0.

● Inbee Park was named Player of the Year for the 2013 LPGA season. With 6 victories, Park held the No. 1 spot in world rankings for 32 consecutive weeks, and was the first South Korean to be named Rolex Player of the Year.

● In September, Apple released its two newest iPhone models, the 5s and the 5c. The 5s is very similar to previous models, while the 5c has a plastic back that comes in a variety of colors and also has a cheaper price tag than the traditional iPhone models.

● Researchers found the closest thing to an Earth-twin in size and composition, though it's far too hot to support life as we know it. Kepler-78b is just 20 percent larger and about 69 percent more massive than our planet, with a density nearly identical to that of Earth. The planet is about 400 light-years from Earth, lies just 900,000 kilometers from its host star and completes one orbit every 8.5 hours. Surface temperatures on Kepler-78b likely top 3,680 degrees Fahrenheit.

● Astronomers discovered a solar system packed with planets, three of which are habitable – meaning in the zone around the star where liquid water could exist, making them possible candidates for the presence of life. The Gliese 667C star is orbited by between five and seven planets and is part of a triple-star system known as Gliese 667.

● Microsoft announced the release of their new gaming console, Xbox One, in several countries across the world on November 22nd. The highly-anticipated console comes with the upgraded motion-sensing Kinect to optimize the gaming experience.

● Sony announced the release of their new gaming console, PlayStation 4, in the United States and Canada on November 15th.
