

This year Miss South Carolina, Amanda Spiers, visited Smoaks Middle School. She told us what it was like growing up in Spartanburg, South Carolina and seeing the Miss South Carolina Pageant on television.

She made winning the pageant one of her goals. She entered the pageant for the first time when she was eighteen. She had to try three more times before winning.

We were very happy that she paid us a visit.

MISS SOUTH CAROLINA