

Smoaks D.A.R.E.S

D.A.R.E. was a new program for the sixth graders. Sergeant White, a Colleton County deputy sheriff, taught the sixth graders to stay away from drugs and the people who want you to try them. The program teaches the students how to identify different drugs and where they can be hidden. The D.A.R.E. class is a great class for kids to take.

TO JUST SAY NO !!