

Sponsor: Miss Hachtman

tive, a fact indicative of the type of representatives we Southwesterners have chosen.

Besides the council members' work in their individual home rooms, they act in concert for the good of the entire school. The council helps maintain our buoyant school spirit, encourages us all to keep the building and grounds immaculate, and in many other indispensable ways enhances every facet of life at Southwest.

JAMES CAROTHERS
Spring Vice-President

SPRING ALTERNATES

Row One: K. Gieck, C. Hughes, J. Carothers, T. Popowchak, S. Schofield, S. Bryant, K. Hastie.
Row Two: C. Boken, B. Young, A. Herzog, T. Lalumondiere, K. Klene, K. Knoblauch.
Row Three: C. Linhart, G. Schrand, F. Sarson, J. Matula, C. Clark, J. Glanz, C. Stratton, S. Wells, S. Stoff, J. Horack, D. Richardson.
Row Four: J. Heitman, J. Selig, J. Schaefer, K. Fries, J. Juergens, G. Whitworth, J. Seiler, M. Paglino, A. Velis, J. Krost, S. Lentin.
Row Five: F. Greening, M. Rosa, W. Richardson, W. Loudon, D. West, D. Daniels, B. Yansky, D. Claves, T. Von Hatten, B. Leonard.
Row Six: C. Loening, J. Robinson, B. Martin, M. Lewis, L. Briesemeister, D. Dodge, E. Richardson, P. Linhorst, F. Brinkop, D. Biskerstaf, E. Veach.