

Miss Gibbons, Miss Jefford, Mr. Gladstone

- Row One: K. Herring, C. Boyce, J. Glanz, M. Ault, G. Freber, J. Daly, C. Guatly, S. Henke, M. Goerger, C. Oliver, D. Jurging, D. Attebery, J. Knoepp.
 Row Two: J. Messmer, S. Bills, A. Thomas, M. Sale, D. Simpson, P. Vogt, J. Rogg, B. Heckel, L. Boettcher, K. Buchholz, G. George, N. Herzog, M. Scherzer.
 Row Three: J. Brew, C. Lalumandiere, S. Carneal, E. Winterer, E. Spudich, S. Greer, C. Petersen, H. Kuhl, S. Peterson, C. Clark, G. Anzalone.
 Row Four: R. Glock, M. Ferretti, M. Pultman, W. Summerfield, J. Autry, F. Stubits, R. Benignus, K. Griechen, B. Sennert, R. Zdellor, D. Istwan, D. Schanche.
 Row Five: B. Wenom, D. Gibbons, R. Blair, D. Grana, C. Coleman, B. Schaefer, Y. Calvin, J. Maranti, B. Cles, J. Ryan.
 Row Six: J. Hahn, R. Magnussen, C. Porter, T. Dubis, B. Bogasch, R. Antoine, E. Nichols, R. Allen, E. Belke.

Freshmen

These are our first semester Southwesterners. Perhaps the theme of this year's Roundup, careers, seems rather remote to our entering freshmen. Four years must pass—and so must they—before they will be ready for employment or further education. Probably many of them have no very definite ideas about their ultimate places in society. Yet it is these freshmen who will most benefit by a serious consideration of careers, and who are most in need of all the counseling aid our school can give. Now is not too early to formulate at least a decision to aim

