

Physics Club

Sponsor: Mr. Pinkus

If you look hard into the picture below you might find the future missile expert for the Air Force, or the man who will design the first rocket to the moon, or perhaps the man who will be in it. All of these things may come about, because the Physics Club is composed of boys and girls who aspire to great heights in the fields of physics and engineering.

Under the guidance of sponsor Mr. Pinkus, the Physics Club visits many places of interest to scientific young minds. Aside from the various field trips taken by the club, they hold regular meetings in room 212 every other Thursday.
