

Radio Workshop

Sponsor: Miss Meenach

The energetic members of these classes may be seen doing many activities which range from cellophane wrapped around the microphone to imitate the sound of fire, to car door slamming, shattering glass tinkling, footsteps sounding on the stairs, someone walking in sand or gravel in a baking pan, a wind machine blowing the many "seasons" in the play, flatten tin cans clanging, lightswitches clicking, egg beaters whirling, and perhaps someone eating a carrot to sound like a squirrel gnawing on wood.

Recognized for their many talents, they have given plays for the Board of Education radio station, KSLH, and for different aud, especially the freshman auds, at Southwest. Besides giving plays, they also devised clever schemes to advertise the Roundup Campaign.

Besides all the fun you have, this class enables you to achieve a successful future. Radio work furnishes a good background for future careers ranging from radar scanners to electrical technician's work in the towers for landing aircraft, and working at Radio and Television Stations.
