

Senior Play

Dulcy, this year's senior play, was a smashing success, a tour de farce. The entire cast gave highly creditable performances, highlighted by Sheila Fletcher in the title role and Ron Glass as Dulcinea's harassed husband. The bromidic heroine of Kaufman and Connelly's frontal attack on the risibility of the American public delivered her profusion of non-sequiturs to the delighted guffaws of a thoroughly enchanted audience. This reviewer has seen many professional productions which failed to equal the polish and verve of the Perrin Players' Dulcy. All in all, Dulcy was one of the most successful productions in the history of Southwest.

Mr. and Mrs. Forbes.

Mrs. Forbes, Dulcy, and Van Dyck.

