

Planning ahead?

President ..... Lee Curtis
 Vice-President ..... Scott Beall
 Secretary ..... Joan Rasmussen

Enthusiastic plans and hard work! These were the accomplishments of the eager Junior Class under the direction of Miss Jackson, Mr. Griffith, and the class cabinet.

The cabinet was composed of many committees, each of which was in charge of one of the year's activities. Sponsored by Miss Farmer and headed by Barb Roberts, the Class-Ring Committee ordered rings in January and awaited their arrival in late April. Money-making projects included a coat check in the Dance Carnival and the Senior-Junior Basketball Game, planned by George Adams. Due to the tremendous success of their work day as sophomores, another one was scheduled for the last of April. Other industrious cabinet members were: Pat Baxter, Skip Davis, Palmer Hartl, Marilyn Hays, John McArtor, Gail Monroe, Gay Miller, Bob Risk, Barb Roberts, Betsy Stoddard, Janet White, and Sally Williamson.

The big social event of the year was the Junior Prom. The five hundred juniors are now looking forward to their senior year and hoping it will be as much fun and as big a success as their junior one has been.
