

Hey Logan!

Well, it's annual-signing time again! That seems unreal! I have enjoyed being in Advanced Chemistry with you-(even though your grades were about 15 pts. higher than mine!!!) Oh well-I tried!

I can't believe ya'll will be in college next year - Good luck at Citadel - when you get a chance come back and visit us here at "Big W.H.A."! Well, I

Logan,

I can't believe this year is almost over. We've had such a great time. I've really enjoyed getting to know you better these past few years. You're a really sweet guy and I'm glad I got to know you. I sure will miss everybody next year. It's going to be odd up at Carolina not knowing anybody, but I guess I'll get used to it. Well, good luck in life because you really deserve it.
Love, Sherry
