

FOREWORD

Cedars have long and faithfully stood guard over the place where the happiest days of our lives have been spent — our school house. What is more fitting than that we should construct a Cedar Chest to hold the fondest and sweetest memories of our school days, to keep these memories fresh and undimmed through the years to come, when, with thoughts tending backwards, we may again and again raise the Chest cover and view the trinkets gathered here and there in the dear old school days — rule days.
