

CLASS WILL

I, J. E. BRODERICK, do hereby will and bequeath my knowledge to Legare Platt.

I, LOUISE CAMPBELL, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get along with Mrs. Fishburne to Edward Campbell and Ernest Lee Culpepper.

I, VERNON BEACH, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to finish school and my liking for football to "Shun" Fennell.

I, BERNARD PINCKNEY, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to shoot pool to Laurie Fennell and may he make "old niner" every time.

I, GERTRUDE BROWNING, do hereby will and bequeath my quick-temper to Betty Grant.

I, ROBERT GODWIN, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to play football (if I am not back to use it) to Laurie Fennell, and may he break Sinkwishes' record.

I, GLENNIE LEIGH FENDER, do hereby will and bequeath my love for algebra to my sister Dorothy.

I, BILLY SANDERS, being of sound mind and pure body, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get enough gasoline to Thomas Berry. Anything else I leave to my sister, Betty.

I, VERNELLE BOYD, do hereby will and bequeath my talkative manner to Margie Smith since I won't be needing it.

I, CAROLYN SMITH, do hereby will and bequeath my overwhelming love for my Chemistry teacher, Miss Plowden to my little sister, Betty Smith.

I, MARY RICE, do hereby will and bequeath my small statue to Boodie Kinsey because she is just too tall. And to my brother, Tommy, go my "great love and admiration" for Waltherboro High School.

I, BETTY PADGETT, do hereby will and bequeath my "big feet" to Gloria Padgett, hoping that they won't be too much of a burden in years to come!

I, FRANCIS FOX, do will and bequeath my ability to get Luke angry about those St. Paul girls to Bubber Lucas.

I, FRANCES HIOTT, do hereby will and bequeath my streamlined figure to Boodie Kinsey.
