

FOREWORD

The Lair of '50 is presented to give the future years a tangible reminder of the never to be forgotten days spent in Walterboro High School—days of work, play, and fellowship spent amid the low-country moss that hangs majestically over the campus.

