

COUNCIL

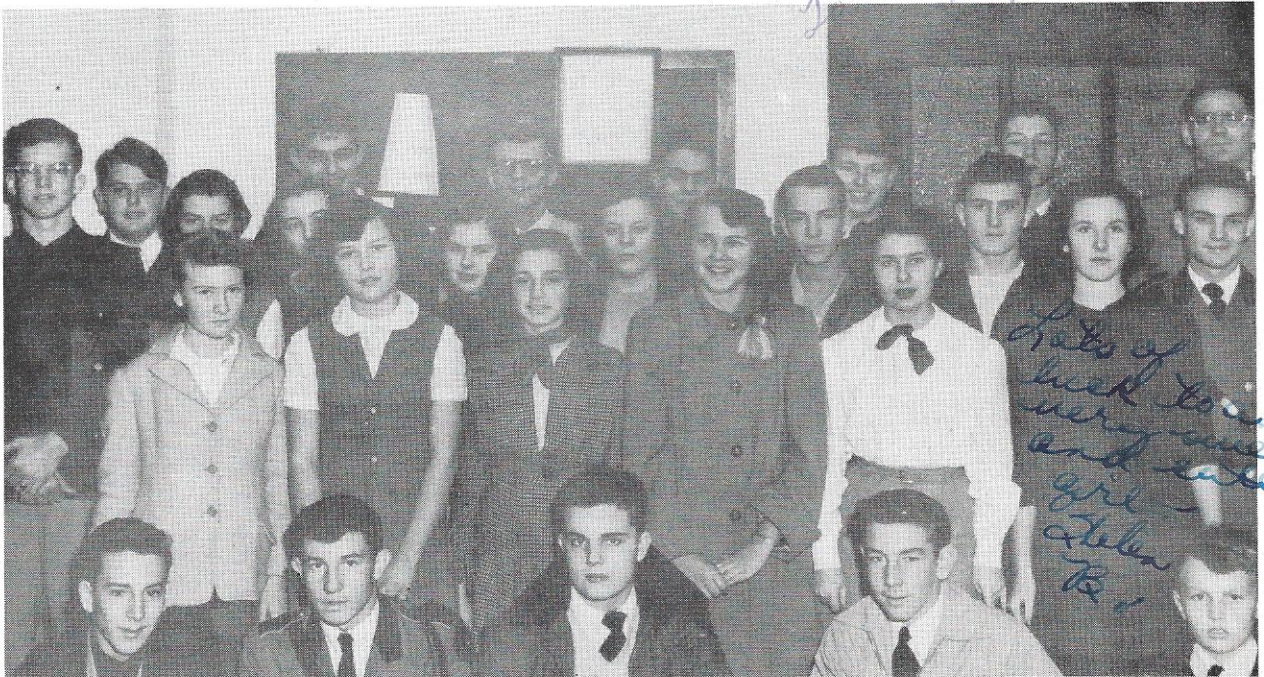

The aim of the Student Council of Walterboro High School is "to establish a . . . democratic student government, to instill the high ideals of good citizenship, and to provide for the general improvement of the school . . ." Co-operation is the motto.

The Student Council of Walterboro High School is a member of the South Carolina Association of Student Councils. Thomas Parker is president; Billy Alford, vice president; Jimmy Hughes, president "pro tempore"; Marion Sams, secretary; and Mr. Charles H.

Thomas, faculty advisor.

Delegates were sent to the Fourth Annual Convention of the South Carolina Association of Student Councils at Greenville. Two members of the Student Council are appointed for each six weeks period to raise and lower the flag for the school day. The Council also has a part in managing the concession stand at the basketball games. They sponsor school dances and participate in the Spring Rally of the First Congressional District of Student Councils.
