May Alice,

I hope you have the best of luck next year with everything and everybody, I know you will. In the year to come I know you will still look as good as you do now, but don't put on any more weight, please! You look fine now. You'll have to come to a few dances at Carolina next year and we'll let it all hang out. It's sure been nice having you around.

With the best of luck,
With all my love,
"Abbie"

The best of luck to a sweet smile
