CLASSES

CLASS OF 1953

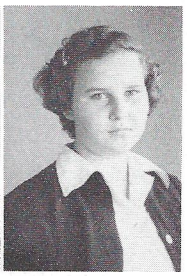

Don -- 7th

My class and yours -- ah, we have shared many hardships and tiring moments together, but everything has always turned out for the best. I recall the first time we came to the high school, we felt so small and yet we knew in our hearts that someday we, yes we, would be seniors.

The school year of '47-'48 was a great one for us -- we had actually begun our long but short climb to higher learning and after nine months of school, vacation finally came.

Barbara -- 8th

Marilyn -- 9th

Our freshman year was a thrilling one for us. We participated in the Homecoming festivities. Shirley was chosen Miss Freshman, and many other new experiences came our way.

The school term of '50-'51 was that of the sophomore year. By that time we had gone a long way up the ladder to becoming a senior. Many things happened to us, but we were "quite capable" of handling them. Our Homecoming float was a minature football game with the Wildcats beating St. George. Grace was Miss Sophomore.

Sandra -- 10th

The Junior year was the most exciting for us. The Junior-Senior was given with the theme of pirates, the junior play, "Am I Intruding" was put on with much fun and hard work. Carey was chosen Miss Junior, and our float for that year was a classroom. As juniors we had a great responsibility that year, and I think that each of us did our best.

Finally our senior year of '52-'53 arrived with much excitement. We entertained the Class of '42 with a Homecoming parade that topped them all! Gloria was crowned queen during the half-time, and we had a big dance after the game. It has been a long climb up the ladder and it has not been easy, but I think each of us has earned the title of "Senior".

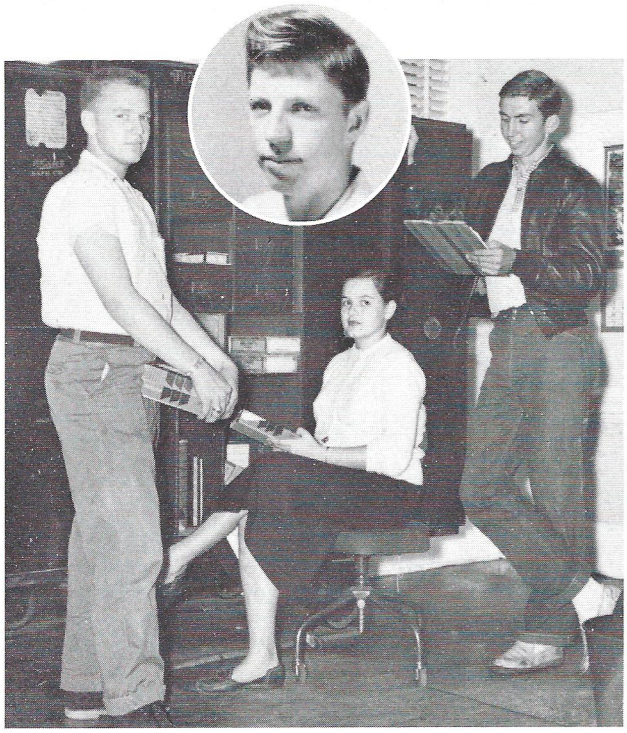

Carl -- 11th

We shall never forget our teachers who have always shown us the right roads to success and to them we owe our deepest gratitude and appreciation. I hope we have been good examples to those who are now coming up the ladder and that they will do even better than we, the class of '53, has done -- My Class and Yours.

Judson Craven
"His dependability is a trait of which we should take note."

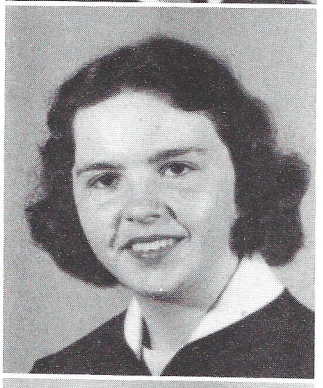

Audrenia Crosby
"Speech is silver; silence is gold."

Deanie Crosby
"Full-o-pep; that's her rep."

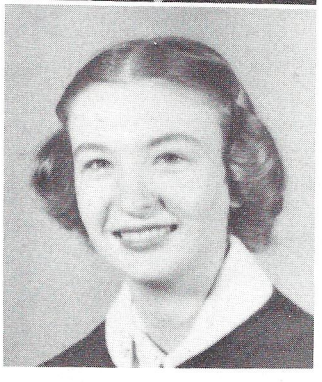

Dennis Crosby
"A man of many interests; none too deep to be reconsidered."

Sylvia Cribb
"Heaven helps those who help themselves. She has used the talents given her."

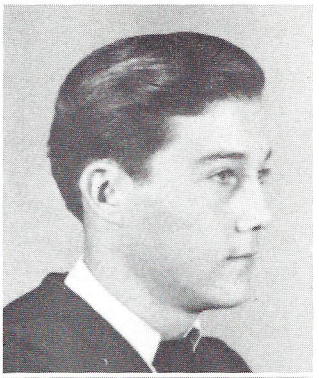

La Don Cummings
"As we watch, we wonder if we can spy the meaning of her mysterious smile."

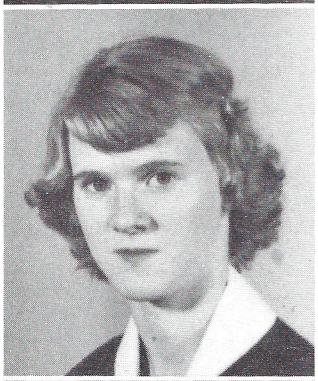

Martha Dukes
"A slender sapling always stands out among the oaks."

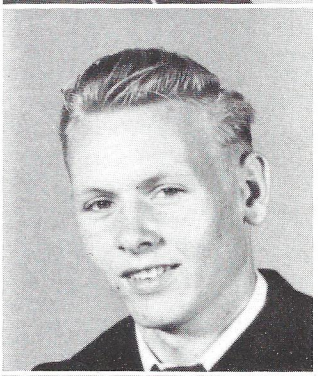

Pearl Drawdy
"Her zeal for life is not shown in her action, but maybe in her thoughts."

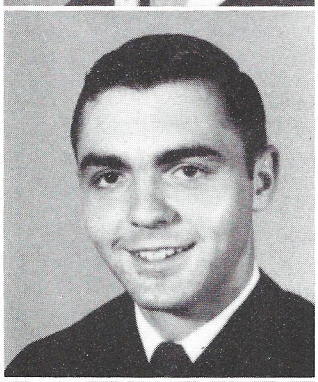

Johnny Evans
"To him, sincerity is a valuable possession."

Betty Fender
"Faith is gained through experience."

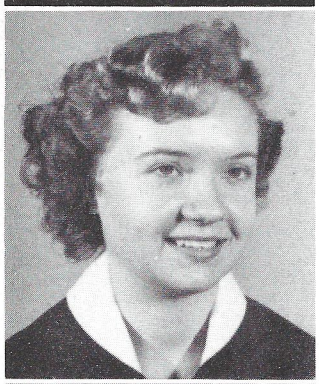

Darion Finley
"What is life unless lived in one's own manner?"

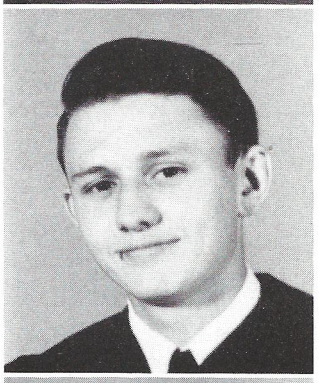

Bobby Fripp
"This we know concerning Bobby; making friends is his hobby."

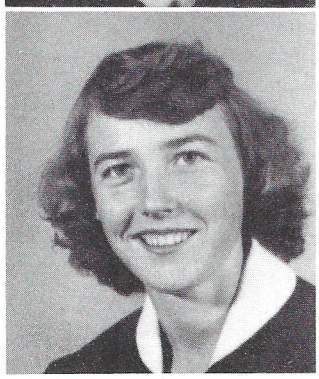

Margie Garris
"Her appearance does not reveal her personality, but her calmness."

Becky Givens
"Her sweetness is like that of the most fragrant rose."

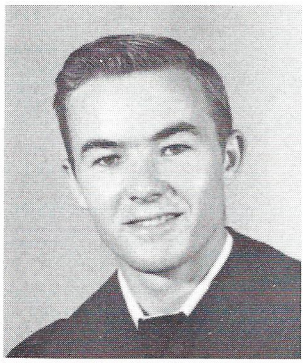

Floyd Goodwin
"One man with courage is a majority."

Ruth Griffin
"She is a reflection in the mirror of wit."

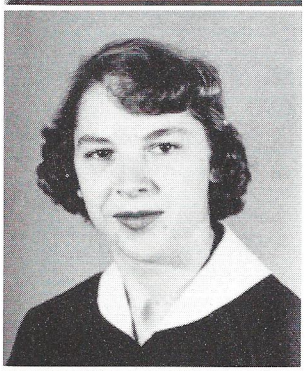

Eve Gunter
"A quiet personality, but sincere."

Lola Mae Hamm
"Her spirit is a winged thing, joyous and delightful."

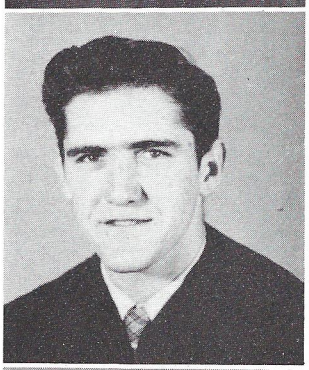

Margaret Harley
"With long life she will satisfy him who has received her affection."

Grace Hayden
"To know her is to love her."

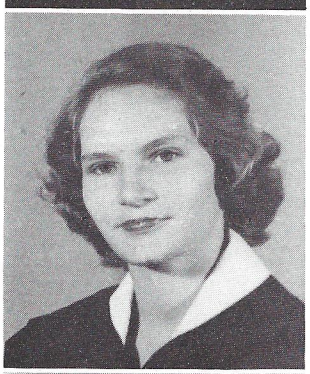

Wallace Hilton
"Silence prevails in his world of affairs."

T. J. Hiott
"The roving kind with a great impression of an over-worked mind."

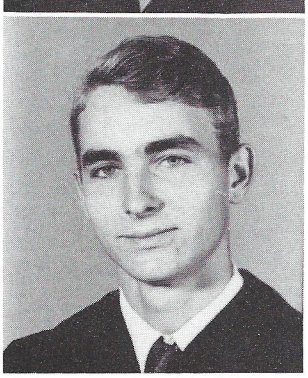

Claire Jenkins
"A brow may-white and nose tiptilted like the petal of a flower."

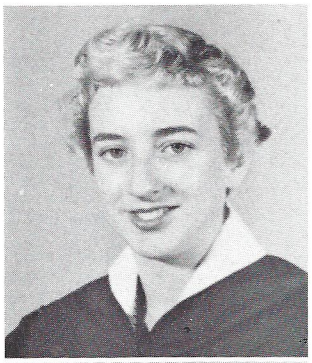

Betty Kinard
"And then there's the story of a nightingale who sang to be happy."

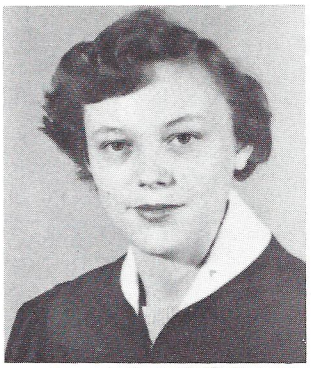

Jeanette Kinard
"They who know her best love her most."

Theodore Kinard
"He is a gentleman and a farmer."

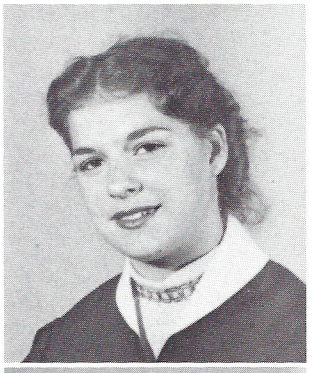

Johnnie Koger
"She holds it a vice in her goodness not to do more than requested."

Adeline Langdale
"It is nice to be natural when one is naturally nice."

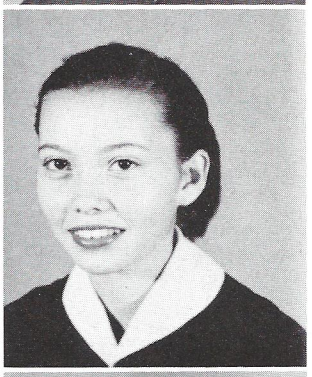

Ernestine Langdale
"A beautiful accident going somewhere to happen."

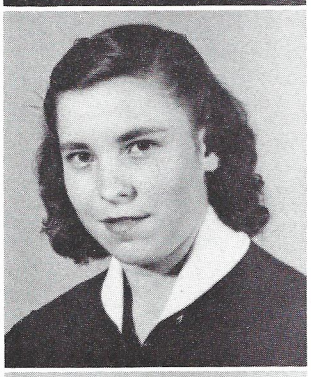

Gloria Lotte
"For nothing lovelier can be found in a woman than her beautiful appearance."

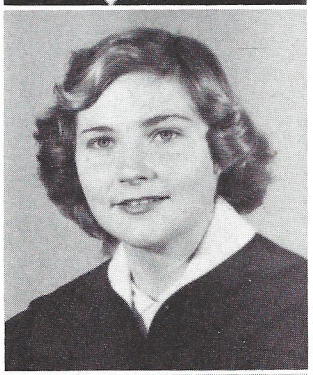

Janelle Lyons
"Dynamite comes in small packages."

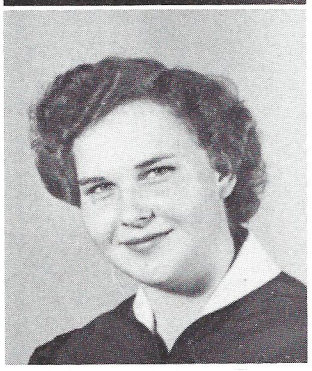

Joan Manor
"All is not glass that looks fragile."

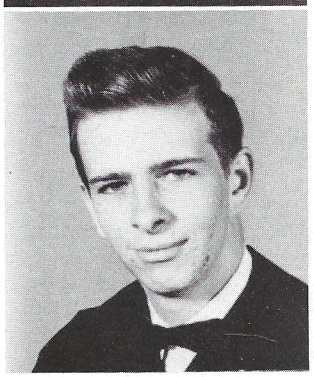

Blanche Nettles
"She gains content in her own ways."

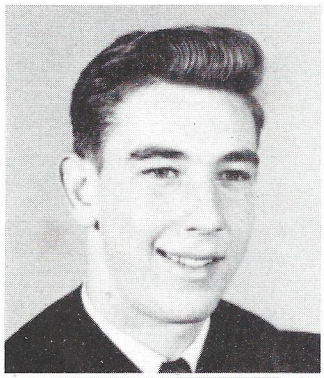

Mary Emma Norton
"It is good to be able to keep silent when in doubt."

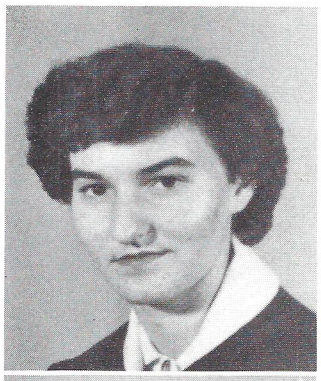

Marilyn Padgett
"Her smile shows her happiness; her friends her personality."

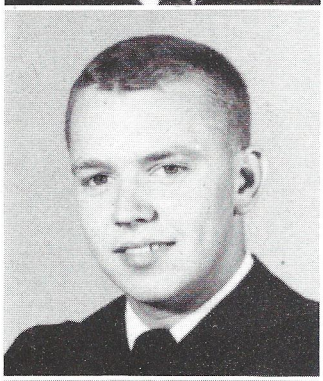

Gene Page
"Worry never made men great--why should he worry?"

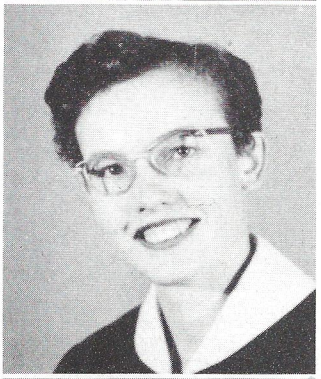

Jack Palmer
"The foundation of success is diligence."

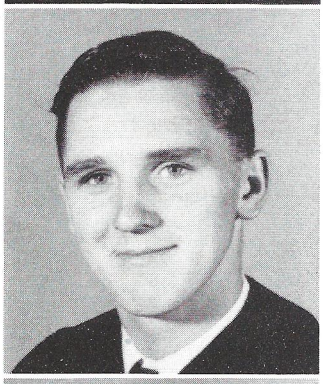

Jeanette Pellum
"It's better to be seen than heard."

Edward Pinckney
"When you've found a man who really knows his mind, you've found a man who's hard to find."

Sandra Platt
"The reason firm, the temperate will, endurance, fore sight, strength, and skill."

Harry Polk
"What is more appealing in a boy than sincere friendliness and courtesy?"

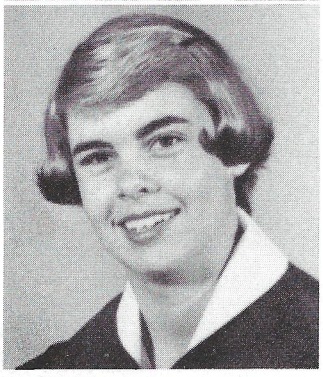

Virginia Polk
"Squirrels chatter too, but it is their nature."

Emmaline Pye
"It was of her inclination to become one's relation."

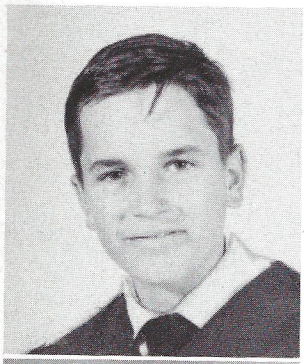

Cecile Rahn
"It pays to be a little shy when a blushing face can catch the eye."

Bunny Rivers
"Girls may come, girls may go, but a sweeter one we'll never know."

Jackie Roberts
"He builds a sure pathway by planning carefully."

Charles Robertson
"Very quiet in his customs; calm in his looks."

Dorothy Robertson
"All's fair in love and war."

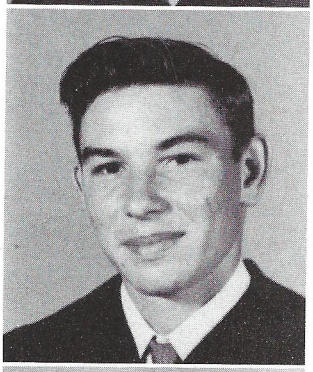

Billie Rowland
"To a man, as hard to catch as a waiter's eye."

Barbara Sanders
"Gay, content, never blue; always faithful, always true."

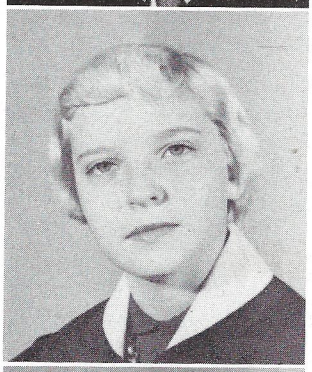

Evelyn Seigler
"Love comes and goes somewhere along the way."

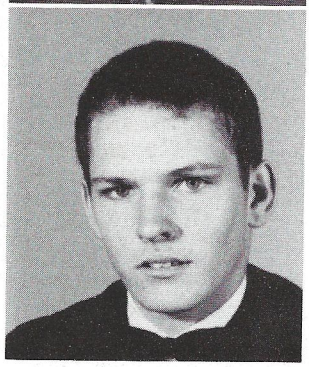

Rogers Simmons
"Better late than never."

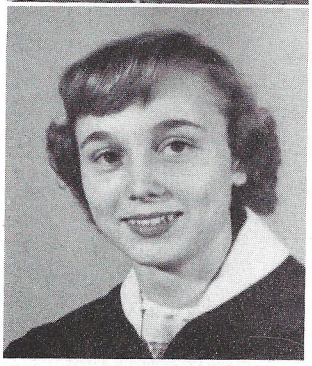

Blanche Sineath
"A pretty girl is like a melody."

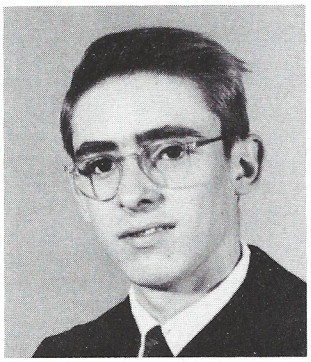

Carey Smith
"Happy am I, from care I'm free. Why aren't they all contented like me?"

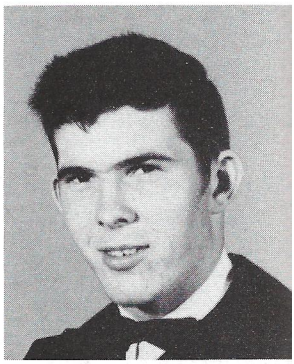

Mendel Smith, Jr.
"His quality and his honor measure his worth."

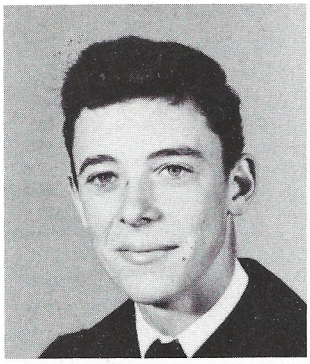

Sarah Anne Snead
"A violet is small, but cherished by all."

Carl Still, Jr.
"In statue small, but just the same he conquers all."

Coke Thacker, Jr.
He has a good memory and a tongue hangs in the middle of it."

Joe Thomas
"A friend may well be called a masterpiece of nature."

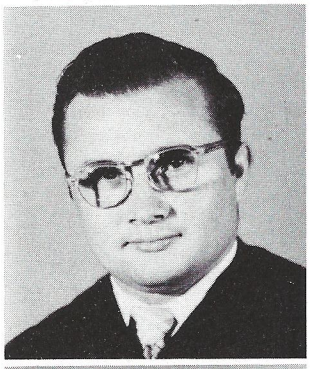

Beatrice Thompson
"What is life without a little teasing?"

Shirley Tippins
"She's all sail and no anchor."

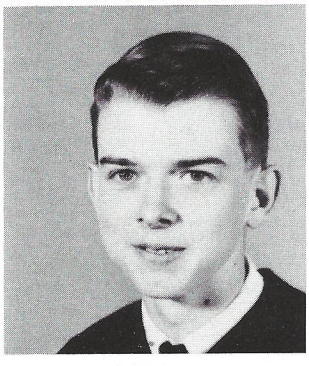

Lena Trowell
"A beautiful soul is better than a beautiful appearance."

James Tunstall
"Laugh and the world laughs with you."

Richard Wiggins
"His heart runs away with his head."

Everette Wilson
"His thoughts are well hidden in a cloak of shyness."

Mary Frances Walker
"She's as genuine as a thumbprint; the evidence is imprinted."

MR. DALE ROBERTSON

"I am very honored to have been selected as the judge for your beauty queen. I just hope that I won't make two friends and three enemies! The contestants must understand that with only a photograph to judge from I am at a disadvantage, since in my opinion, 'beauty stems from within'!"
