

The Lair

The Fair

1960

Presented by
The Senior Class
WALTERBORO HIGH SCHOOL
Walterboro, South Carolina

FOREWORD

There is magic in the words "when knighthood was in flower." They immediately conjure up thoughts of fair ladies, valiant knights, fire-breathing dragons, wily magicians, colorful tournaments, and adventurous quests. The institution of chivalry stands as a symbol of man's never-ending pursuit of noble ideals.

Today, although we no longer have moated castles and fierce dragons, shining armor and bright swords, gallant horses and flying pennons, we are still waging the war of right against wrong, we are still striving to reach the goals and ideals that inspire our efforts, and we are still pursuing the eternal quest for knowledge.

As we look back upon our four years in high school, let us think of them as years spent in quest of self-realization. Each effort we have exerted, each activity in which we have participated, each contribution we have made has aided us in moving ever nearer toward the accomplishment of our varied aspirations.

Now, as we leave Walterboro High School to go forth into a larger world, we hope that we shall always keep before us the dreams, the ideals, the lofty aims that our Alma Mater has pointed out to us, and we shall never cease OUR QUEST for the good, the pure, and the beautiful.

ALMA MATER

Angels, guard our Alma Mater
From the skies of blue;
Guard and guide our footsteps ever,
Firm and strong and true.

We will e'er uphold thy standards ---
Honor, love, and truth;
Pledge our hearts, our hands, and voices,
Loyalty and youth.

Chorus:

Forward! ever be our watchword,
Conquer and prevail;
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
W.H.S. all hail!

Our Guest
for

Mrs. Stoud,
 Well it is almost the end of my ninth year in school. I have certainly enjoyed hard with you and having you as my teacher for the past two years.
 It has all been nice. I have also learned a great deal from you. You were certainly one of the nicest teachers a person could have. I will really miss you next year.

He is wishing you all the luck in the world. Not only as a student but as a friend indeed. May the Lord bless you in what life takes you to do
