

Snapshots

Teaching is not just coming to school from nine o'clock until three o'clock. It involves many other things; sponsoring a club or other outside activity, patrolling the halls during the ten-minute break and at lunch, coming to P. T. A. meetings and Open House, and making out report cards. Sometimes it is lonely, sometimes it is frustrating, but it is always rewarding.

