

*Happy, It's been a great year with lots of fun and hard work - but a year with never forget. I've enjoyed going to school with you Some times I'm not sure if its fun or hardships - just the same we made it through. (Thank goodness!) you are a sweet girl with a very warm and pleasant personality just as you are, sweet cat and you'll be any where you
 go. Love, Ilona*

Miss Walterboro High

Ilona Hiers

The Senior Class selected seven girls to be in the Miss Walterboro High contest. The pictures were then sent to Mr. William M. Shields, a nationally known college photographer, for judging. Mr. Shields does the work for such colleges as Erskine College and Presbyterian College.

Ilona is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Hiers. Her main interests are horseback riding and dancing; she teaches tap dancing, jazz, and ballet at Kay Thompson's Dancing School. She plans to major in modern dancing in college.
