

The organizations of WHS help to form the kaleidoscope—united they are a whole, coordinating their energies and harmonizing their desires.

Each activity at WHS does its part and adds its color to the whole. Each piece of color in the picture of our school shimmers in the light of success.