

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

In September 1964 we entered Walterboro High School as lowly freshmen. Through all our awkward attempts to adjust, we became aware that each student has a place in our high school life.

As sophomores we greeted the freshman class with a feeling of superiority. After all, we had experienced many of the same problems facing them.

Even a greater feeling of distinction was ours with the arrival of our class rings. Our junior year kept us busy with concession stands, the Halloween Carnival, and the Junior Class Play. All our endless hours of work were climaxed by "Moonlight and Roses."

Finally, we became Seniors. This year has seen many changes. Seniors were given privileges and a new system of nine-weeks periods was begun. A winning season in football is one change that will not soon be forgotten.

As a Senior we face the fact that decisions have to be made. We begin to see what we are. We also begin to direct ourselves toward some kind of goal. We may change our goal many times before we finally reach it, but we have to begin to plan now.

We are guided toward our goal by all our years of learning. Without this past experience there would be no hope of aiming toward a goal that is suited for us. As we graduate, we are on the threshold of our tomorrow. With the hope that we have made the right decision, we eagerly await the future.
