

JUNIOR FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

SEATED: Susan Warren, Pam Proctor, Mrs. Hawkins, Janis Avant, Vice-President; Brenda Phipps, Treasurer; Kathy Breland, President; Linda Mixson, Connie Nettles, Secretary; Ruby Smoak, Parliamentarian; Gail Nettles, Historian. SECOND ROW: Sharon O'Quinn, Jean O'Brien, Donna Warren, Mary Ann Smith, Linda Blocker, Virginia Fender, Kitty Smoak, Darnell Robertson, Brenda Miller, Janis Smoak, Brenda Herndon, Lynn Stanfield. THIRD ROW: Rosemary Pinkney, Lucinda Craven, Debbie Moore, Alice Branton, Mary Ann Smith, Carolyn Baldwin, Mary Alice Fletcher, Jan Tripp, Nancy Lytchfield, Lib Hiott, Donna Butler, Cindy Moore, Jo Smoak, Von Benton, Victoria Infinger, Audrey Bailey, and Gladys Jones.

Getting ready for Christmas.

The satisfaction and joys of home-making are emphasized in FHA. Through panel discussions and guest speakers, family life, home management, and good will are stressed.

A scrapbook and yearbook are the state projects of FHA. Giving a Thanksgiving basket and aiding the Good Cheer Club are among the local projects. The Walterboro Chapter received the Hoffman award which is the highest FHA state honor.