

This has been a good year. Games were won, queens were crowned, and awards were presented. The Seniors have taken a giant step in life — up the aisle to receive their diplomas.

Now that the last bell for the 1967-1968 school year has rung, only memories remain. But with these memories are experience and knowledge. These will guide us in our Search of Tomorrow.