

The WHS Bulldogs traveled to Beaufort for the first game of the year. The Bulldogs should have beaten the Battery Creek Dolphins, but failed to do so. Even though one of their second quarter touchdowns was called back, the Dolphins scored another in that same quarter and still another in the third quarter.

The second half kickoff return resulted in a major injury to Jackie Ramsey, who was returning the ball. Jackie was carried to the hospital. It wasn't until later that night that Jackie learned of the 12-0 defeat.

The second game of the year saw the Bulldogs looking for a win against the highly ranked James Island Rams. Traveling to James Island, the Bulldogs came home without their victory, losing 34-0. With two games lost and one of those a conference game, some action had to be taken.

Brady Howe makes a finger tip catch under defensive pressure against the Dolphins.
