PE Girls Gain Pride

How do you get into these things?" asked the new girl in PE class.

"You're going to need help," someone replied.

"Two of us will stretch the neck and two others need to stretch the legs. Then, you get on top of the locker and take a flying leap," a second girl stated.

"Yea! If you haven't broken your neck, you'll be in your PE uniform" another chuckled.

Ms. Mathis and Ms. Dunmore suggested getting the uniforms. In past years girls had brought in cutoff jeans, t-shirts or whatever was available. The instructors believed the uniforms would provide a neater appearance and would be more flattering.
