

ONE STEP BEYOND

On May 30, 1980, 271 Seniors faced the greatest moment in their lives, Graduation. These graduates proved that there is a reward, not a medal but a sense of pride that only comes when you know you have done your best. And those who gave that extra effort did not go unnoticed. Sharon Mole was the Valedictorian, who also won an award from the Bausch & Lowil Co., and a full scholarship to the College of Charleston. The Salutatorian was Cheryl Faulkner who also won a scholarship to the College of Charleston. John Barnes won the Adams-Bailey Scholarship, and the Tea & Topic Club Award. Marsha Bright received an award from the Colleton County Education Assoc. Glen Hiers received the Bus Drivers Award. Pamela Hicks received an award from the National Council of Negro Women, the Elks Club, and the Citizenship Award. And a special mention went to Billy Wayne Chambers who had Perfect Attendance for 12 years.

Lord don't let me trip, was the main thought throughout Graduation, as the Seniors marched down the aisle.
