

Above: Judy Bright and Steve Headden are about to add the final touches to their prize winning float.

CHRISTMAS Parade Inspirational to Students

The Christmas Parade is an event to be enjoyed by everyone of every age. Christmas is a time of sharing and caring. Once again as shown in the Rice Parade, WHS showed their community involvement with three different departments in the parade. The three departments where Student Council, Forestry Club, and the Band of Blue. The Student Council float aided by

Mr. Dreyer worked furiously to complete their prize winning float named by their theme "The Journey not, The Harbor." The float took first place in the parade. The Forestry Club which is always consistent in what they can do. Their efforts brought them a second place prize. The Band of Blue which is always on hand for all occasions displayed their simplicity and truest form of the great band that there are. As they marched in their Columbia Blue and Keystone Cop hats that is unique in itself. The three departments which showed an array of excellence in this parade, but as usual once again WHS showed their leadership in the community development for the likes of all people.

Above: The Rice Planters, who show real community involvement, are happily waving at the crowd as they go by.