

Left: The latest addition to the service stations around Walterboro is the Econo-Mart located near I-95.

Below: Burger King is a favorite of Walterboro High students. Not only is it a nice place to eat, but for socializing as well.

Right: A lonely Dairy Queen stands by herself in the early morning hours. Later it will be alive with customers.

Above: Necessity is the mother of invention. We are naming it Western Sizzlin Steak House.
