

Two Regrettable Losses

On Friday Sept. 19 Walterboro played their first conference game against Battery Creek. It was a hard fought game by both teams.

The defense dominated the game as neither team scored. The Bulldogs did have a chance to score in the fourth quarter but a fumble halted their process.

After a scoreless game, the Bulldogs scored with an 11-yard pass from Strickland to Clayton in overtime but missed the extra point.

Battery Creek came back and scored after 3 attempts. The Dolphins tried for an extra point but the snap was low and the quarterback picked it up and ran around the end for the go ahead point. The Bulldogs lost 8-6 and is 1-2 for the season.

The captains for this game were Tye Simmons and Michael Ford.

Friday September 26 was the second conference game for the Bulldogs. Mistakes on the Bulldogs part helped stall to win the game. The Bulldogs didn't even punt the entire game. But mistakes, including three fumbles in their first four possessions, set up Stall to win 24-8.

The defeat leaves Walterboro with a 1-3 record overall and 0-2 in the conference.

The captains were Derrick Smith and Dean Brinson.

Bulldogs ready for the action.

Greg Clayton races for the end zone as he scores the first punt returned for a TD in a couple of years.
