

Left Above: Jimmy Jarvis and Mark Mocha talk things over before the game.

Right Above: An unidentified defender pounds the ground in frustration as Greg Clayton glides by.

Below: With Jimmy Reed out in front Bubba Fort cuts against the grain and is apparently going to bite the dust.

Below Bottom: Justin Strickland shows his unique form as he gets a pass off.

Bulldogs Play Superb But Lose Close

In the Beaufort game WHS started out very good by scoring two touchdowns in the first half. The defense played superb in the first half also, holding Beaufort to very little yardage. In the second half, the defense broke down and gave up fifteen points. Beaufort had a fairly good team. They had a well balanced offense and defense. But overall, WHS played a very good game.

In the Middleton game, WHS scored first as usual. WHS' first touchdown came on a 22-yard punt return by Greg Clayton that set them up in good field position. The touchdown came on a 43-yard pass play to Michael Gibson. Middleton drove down the field on a 59-yard drive and scored the extra point was good and Middleton was ahead to stay. In the second half WHS played very good but couldn't put any points on the board. Middleton scored twice more before the game was over. The final score was 16-6.