

Above: Greg Clayton struggles to get loose.

Above: Mark Glover and Kevin Whitaker are in hot pursuit of a Middleton Razorback.

Above: Greg Clayton slips away from tackler.

Above: Jimmy Reed and Bubba Fort reacts on the play.

Bulldogs Take It on the Chin

On October 31, Walterboro played Goose Creek. This was their homecoming game. But the game was played sloppily by the Bulldogs. The only Score Walterboro got was on an interception by Jimmy Reed returned 60 yards. The Bulldogs lost 25 to 7 against the Gators.

The captains were Michael Ford and Jimmy Reed.

Walterboro lost their last game although the defense played a very fine game. The defense allowed only 1 first down and 26 yards in the first half. And Walterboro was winning 8-0. At the end of the game the defense allowed only 58 total yards but lost 11-8.

Fumbles hurt the offense again in this game. Inexperience was a big factor for the Dogs this year. Maybe they will do it next year.