

Above: First row: Greg Smalls, Gene Breland. Second row: Stevie Rivers, Leroy Womble, Johnny Smith, Bruce Williams, Issac Bodison, Leon Williams, Tyrone Francis, Josh Middleton, Larry McDuffee, Gilbert Pinckney, Tony Johnson, Coach Simmons.

Hot - n - Cold

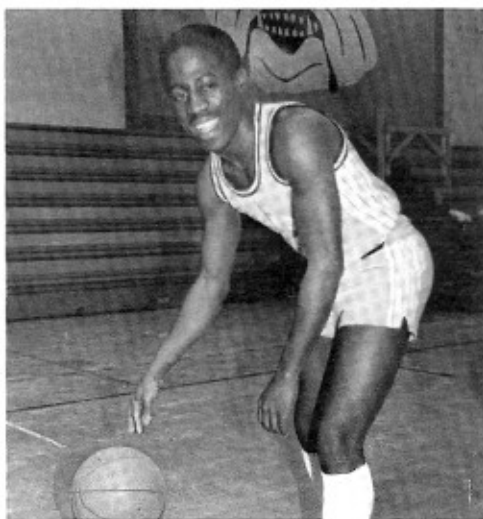

Potential was everything that this year's team had. They showed that potential by winning all of their scrimmages. They blew out Ruffin and Bishop England in the process. The Bulldogs didn't have all that much talent, but with six seniors coming back, three of them starters and one seeing considerable playing time. The Bulldogs was expected to have a pretty successful year of basketball.

The Bulldogs had a very poor start by losing it's first four games including an invitational tournament held at Walterboro High Gym. After this dismal start, the Bulldogs won it's first conference game against Goose Creek by 20 points. During the Christmas holidays the Bulldogs participated in the Big Buc Tournament at Baptist College where they won 1 out of 3 games and finished 5th in the tournament.

The rest of the season would be mostly conference games beginning with Wando. In that game, the Bulldogs played in inconsistent the first half while in the second half they got together but lost to the first place team by only six points. Following that lost, . . .

Above: Greg Small, 5'9" point guard, Jr.

Above: Gene Breland, 5'8 1/2" point guard, Sen.

Above: Leroy Womble, 6'0" guard, Jr.