

MISS SOPHOMORE

Being Miss Sophomore, to truthfully say, was the biggest thrill of my sophomore year. If it all could happen again, I wouldn't want anything to change. Also, being Miss Sophomore made me realize that faith in yourself plays a major role in all of our lives.

Everything about the competition was thrilling. Every young lady had a distinctive quality that made each one of us feel that there are never any losers. Everyone knew that deep inside us was a queen, but only one would wear the crown.

Most of my faith came from my friends that supported me and helped me to believe in myself. I often wonder to myself, "Without them, would I have benn Miss Sophomore?" As my reign comes to an end, I would like to wish joy and happiness to next year's recipient of this crown.

Yvette Stephens,
Miss Sophomore '80-81"

Mrs. Bright is amused by the antics of her class.

Janis Johnson
Kathy Jones
Marissa Jones
Rhonda Jones
Tana Jones
Drayne Kelly

Gregory Kinsey
Shyrell Kinsey
John Kitchen
Steve Knight
Alice Koth
Benjamin Langdale

Stephen Langdale
Malissa Lee
Daniel Lewis
Linda Limehouse
Julius Long
Sonny Lovejoy

Edward Lyons
Wesley Lyons
Thomas Marby
Donna Malendez
Calvin Manigault
Kelvin Manigault

