LOOKING GOOD

Throughout your high school life, you are confronted with that "looking good" need. But, there's always that unsecure feeling about yourself lurking in the back of your mind. A set of basic steps toward self-positiveness has been established to help you attract your mate.

1. Overweight Blues

Diet time. Those unnecessary fatty tissues have to go. Give up those candy bars!

2. Transportation

Two alternatives: Take Driver's Ed to prepare for getting the license. Pass the test, buy a new car . . . OR . . . double-date with someone who can drive.

3. Money Talks

Need more money to impress your date? . . . Get a job! . . . or bum from mom and dad.
