

Becoming a project for City Council is the revitalization of Main Street.

Built in 1824 by Robert Barnwell Rhett is the "Nullification House", now standing lonely and unoccupied.

After being destroyed by a fire the Hargo House was torn down.

Remodeling to add more space Asten-Hill hopes to increase employment.

