

Injuries Plague Dogs

In the opening quarter against Beaufort, Walterboro couldn't take advantage of a fumble recovered by Frank McCoy on Beaufort's first play. That gave the Bulldogs a first down at the Eagle 29. After the Eagles first score the Dogs had to fight to keep them out of the end zone. John Brown intercepted and returned the ball to the 17. There were just seconds left in the quarter and W'boro could just get a couple of plays off. The Bulldogs pulled within seven on a 90-yard drive that began at the end of the third quarter. Gavin Washington got them out of a hole with a 32-yard scamper on a draw. Two plays later he went 10 yards on another draw. Michael Gibson went 11 yards on an inside reverse. Michael said, "It was tough trying to score." The final score was Beaufort 14, Walterboro 7. Walterboro's loss to Middleton was not just an ordinary defeat. Devastation is a more accurate description of the outcome. The score was 20-14. Greg Clayton iced the game with a 70 yard touchdown run and had it called back on a clip. Washington busted up the middle and gave W'boro the lead in the 2nd quarter. Then he threw an electrifying 46-yard pass to Gibson in the third quarter that put the Bulldogs in command. The Bulldogs had a 14-0 advantage after 3 quarters only to see it trimmed to 14-13. John McDonald stated, "We lost the game due to a couple of bad plays." The Dogs gained a victory over Stall. The defense forced Stall to punt after the kickoff, and the offense was still in gear. Clayton scored on runs of 47, 25, 24, 25 and 4 yards. He took a pitchout and appeared to have a reasonable six yard gain when he was belted hard by a Warrior linebacker. But he bounced off, staggered for five yards, balanced by his hand, regained his footing, eluded the safety and dashed into the endzone. The main highlight of this game was the five touchdowns ran by Greg Clayton for a total of 244 yards. The final score was 33-19. Injuries plagued the team throughout these three games. Coach Hall commented, "It's the first time I've ever lost a quarterback, tailback, and a center at the same time. Patrick Peters sprained his ankle. Evon Robinson had a bruised hip. Tony Stephens banged up his shoulder. Mike Hardee and Rally Reynolds hurt their left hands.

While looking on, Vincent Bryant is being prepared for action by Coach Robert Driggers and trainer, Jerry Peters.
