

SENIOR "REFRIGERATOR," Pamela Denise Hand, makes a mad rush for the fumbled football.

Coach Polk really kept things organized. During powder puff practice, he told the girls the strategy of the game and also motivated them. Instructing the girls was not the end of Coach Polk's task. He was also in charge of keeping the student coaches in line when they got rowdy.

Because Coach Polk attended every practice for both the junior and senior girls, he was a great inspiration to them.

KEITH GREEN GIVES his expert advice to Bertha Ulin, Leslie Pitts, Kim McNeil, Kathy Hartnett, Laura Groves and Sonya Peters. "You run left and down the center, avoid all blocks, and make that touchdown."
