

MICHELLE WASSON, valedictorian, Karen Mannerak, salutatorian, and Marlene Brabham, third honor graduate, smile in pride after they receive their diplomas.

Oh What A Night

Though Thursday, June 5, 1986, marked the end of twelve meaningful years, it did not mark the end of learning. Many students got jobs right after high school; however, others went on to college or technical school. Regardless of what avenue each senior pursued, they all took that first plunge into independence.

Graduation was a night of recognition. Those seniors who made 1000 or higher on the SAT were honored. Dale Hoover, fourth in his class, made an outstanding score of 1250 on the SAT.

The scholarships presented at the graduation ceremonies exceeded the amount of $33,925. This did not include the scholarships donated by the United States Army, which amounted to $92,400 to be divided among six worthy students.

The valedictorian of the class of 1986 was Melinda Michelle Wasson with a fourteen-hundredths of a point lead over Karen Mannerak, salutatorian. Though in stiff competition, they still remained close friends.

TONY POOLE makes his way across the stage to receive his diploma. The audience gave him a standing ovation for this achievement.

