

Outgoing Students Found Everywhere

NARRATING THE LIP-SYNC contest sponsored by the Junior class to raise money for the Jr./Sr. Prom is Kim Hendricks and Robert Cuzzone.

Enjoying everything life had to offer was of utmost importance to seniors, Kim Hendricks and Robert Cuzzone. Wherever Kim and Robert happened to be, they made the best of it, whether it was an enjoyable atmosphere or not. They could always be found at the infamous Saddle Club parties, football games, community events and various other school functions. Kim was crowned Homecoming Queen. She was an officer of the Spirit Club and a section editor of the Paw Print Staff. Robert, the assistant editor and design editor of the annual staff, was also Senior Class Secretary and a member of the Spirit Club.

"I really don't know of any other way to be," expressed Kim. Being outgoing was a habit to Kim and Robert—one that neither would ever break.
