

Friendliest—Eager to Help With Any Problem

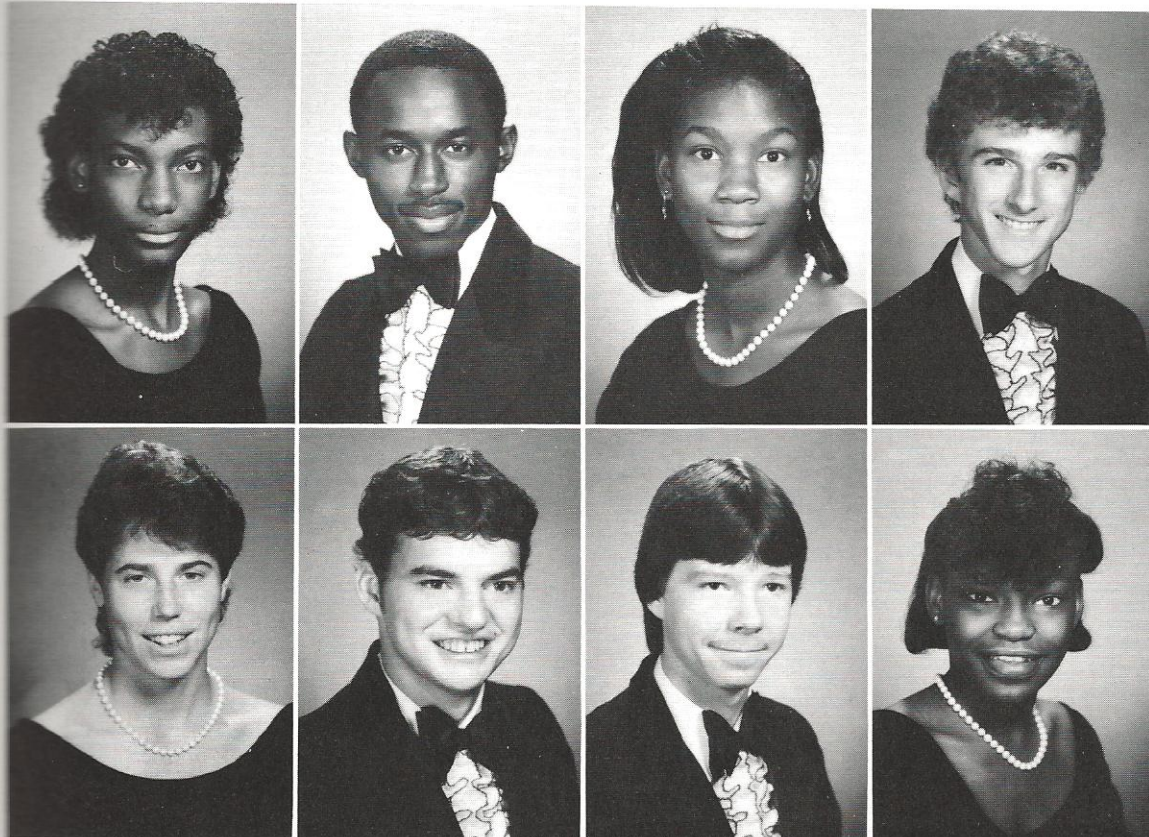

TALKING WITH A GOOD FRIEND is something that comes naturally for Kathy Lawson and Victor Jones.

Kathy Lawson and Victor Jones were selected the friendliest seniors by the senior class because of their helpfulness and congeniality. Kristy Smoak said, "I voted for Kathy and Victor because they are always smiling and eager to help with any problem."

Kathy enjoyed being an active member in the National Honor Society, Student Government and an editor-in-chief of the Paw Print. Victor was on the Varsity football team and ran track for three years. He also enjoyed being a Powder Puff coach.

Kathy and Victor shared their enthusiasm at being honored as friendliest. Being friendly came naturally to them.
