

Tracy Reeves goes up to spike while Christy Moseley backs her. Both rookies had the honor of starting in mid-season.

Michelle Minton returns a volley. She received an amazing four letters last year for volleyball, basketball, track, and softball.

Players give support from the bench, or floor, as in the case of Jessika vonPlaten, the first exchange student on the team.

Some consider Christy Moseley a rookie, though she is a returning player from the 1984 season. Here she returns a volley.

"After playing for Goose Creek, I had to adjust. But we all got along well together." —Melinda Montjoy, Junior.

"The team was successful because the ladies were unselfish and dedicated." —Coach Cathie Layton